The nonprofit organization Shanti, which was founded in 1974 to provide practical and emotional support for people living with life-threatening or chronic illnesses, marked its 35th anniversary on November 10 with a gala benefit at the Hotel Kabuki in Japantown. Executive Director Kaushik Roy said that several supporters were honored for their work, including, from left, Christine Morrison; Kevin Burns, a former leader of the organization; Colleen Wilson, from Genentech; and Chip Shupanich.
